

R U Familiar with Deuteronomy 13

The first question is, are you familiar with chapter 13 of Deuteronomy, which seriously warns us about before Jesus Christ appeared? About false prophets, teachers, and the Creator ONE (God(s)). Deuteronomy chapter 13 is not the only passage that has warned us about that. Several passages in the TANAKH (Hebrew Bible) also echo the same warnings in the Deuteronomy chapter 13. False prophets and the temptation to follow other creator ones, here are a few examples:

- Deuteronomy 18:20-22: This passage warns against prophets who speak in the name of other gods or who speak presumptuously in אלהים's name in vain. It emphasizes that such prophets should not be feared and will face consequences for their false prophecies.
- Jeremiah 23:16-17: The prophet Jeremiah warns the people not to listen to the words of false prophets who speak visions from their minds and not from the mouth of אלהים (I AM). These prophets often tell people what they want to hear rather than the truth.
- Ezekiel 13:1-9: Ezekiel speaks against false prophets who deceive the people with false visions and divinations. He declares that these prophets will not be part of the council of אלהים's people and will face judgment.

These passages, like Deuteronomy chapter 13, emphasize the importance of staying with only אלהים, the true Creator almighty ONE (God), no one else, and being wary of those who might lead the people astray with false teachings. Even Psalms 146:3 also warns us not to put our trust in princes, who are human beings who cannot save us. Yet, people from the ancient and present-day still fall in for this prince Jesus Christ as a false prophet.

Some other believers also believe that this so-called Jesus is the Creator ONE אלהים, who came down in the flesh, but do not realize or have been ignoring what אלהים has warned us many times. Plus, the book of Numbers Chapter 23, verse 19 said that אלהים is NOT a man (HUMAN), that he should lie, NOT a human being, and that HE should change his mind. Does HE speak and then not act? Does HE promise and not fulfill? The book of Hosea chapter 11, verse 9 also points out that אלהים is not a man and never will. That is one of the reasons why this Jesus Christ cannot be the Creator ONE, אלהים.

Some others also believe that before Jesus came down from heaven in the flesh, he was this one chief angel (spirit messenger from heaven). This also cannot be true, because, in the TANAKH, angels are often depicted as divine spiritual beings who serve various roles, including as protectors. They are sent by אלהים to carry out HIS will, deliver messages, and provide guidance and protection to humans. Their nature as spiritual beings set them apart from mankind, emphasizing their divine origin and purpose. We must also realize only mankind is to be called a "SON", the spiritual messengers (angels) cannot. We, as mankind, are created in the liken of אלהים. We are the sons and the spirit messengers are one of אלהים divine beings, that it. Nowhere in the scripture mentioned that the spiritual messengers (Angels) are liken אלהים, and to be called sons. If you do see one said that, the scripture book you're reading is the bad translated book.

FYI, if any one of you mentioned a young (virgin) woman who was conceived and bore a son according to what Isaiah 7:14 said, is Mary who gave birth to Jesus. This is where they are often being fooled for not reading that scripture very carefully according to that prophecy woman in Isaiah 7:14 is Isaiah's wife. And their son's name is Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

"...he (Isaiah) approached the prophetess and she conceived (fahar) and bore (taled) a son and God said to me: Name the child: "Maher-shalal-hash-baz" For before the child shall know how to cry my father my mother the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away before the king of Assyria" - Isaiah 8:4

As you can see, that isn't Jesus Christ at all. And what's more, King Ahaz must see the sign of the prophecy to be fulfilled which did. He would be long dead for Jesus to appear as a sign. And the worst part is, according to the New Testament Bible of Matthew, there is a genealogy bloodline problem that doesn't match up with what the Old Testament books' genealogy tells us.

Isaiah 7:14 references in the New Testament Bible are just one of many other bad evidence that many Christians have been claiming about. I, Bro. Pouliot can also show you more of other reference mistakes like Isaiah 7:14 they have been trying to prove to us. Many of those references they do not realize are copycat and made up.
