

Earth Do NOT Move &

i t ' s N O T F l a t !

There are scripture books, 1st Chronicles 16:30, Psalm 93:1, and Psalm 104:5-6, all of these passages saying that the earth does not move. Earth does not rotate or cycle around the sun, nor perhaps both movements. I, Bro. Pouliot was a little bit skippy about that at first. Because our American school system taught us that the Earth spins and rotates around the sun. It took me a while to figure out, whether that was true or not. Investigation into that matter, to find out whether Earth does not cycle around the sun or Earth rotates itself.

- “Tremble before Him, all the earth! The world is firmly established—it does not be moved.”
- “אלהים is king; he clothes himself with majesty. אלהים clothes himself; he girds himself with might. Yes, the world is established so that it cannot be moved.”
- “He established the earth on her foundations, so it should not be moved forever and ever. You covered it with the deep as with a garment. The waters stood above the mountains.”

I never forget the history I was taught about Christopher Columbus in school. Civilized people in the 16th century, once believed that the earth was flat. Not knowing that the Earth is a spherical planet. Because of how often they've seen ships sailing far-off in the sea horizon ends up disappearing. Like the ship must have fallen off the earth's edge.

Sailors during those days warned people not to sail out too far because they never returned. Indeed, most of these ships never return, it's because sailors often face bad storms, treacherous seas, and unpredictable weather that pose significant risks. Most of those ancient ships lacked modern weather forecasting, making them vulnerable to sudden storms. The Mediterranean, Red Sea, and Indian Ocean had their share of tempests, and ships could be lost due to rough seas, strong winds, or navigational errors. It's also because the 16th-century shipbuilding techniques may seem rudimentary by today's standards, they laid the groundwork for future innovations and played a pivotal role in shaping the age of discovery.

Anyway, Christopher Columbus knew that the earth was not flat but more like the circle shapes of the moon or sun. He tried to demonstrate to people the earth is shaped like a pear-shaped. People laughed at him and didn't agree with him. The reason he knew about the circle of the earth, was probably from what he read the Bible. While he had some science open mind to figure out why Earth must be around instead of flat planet.

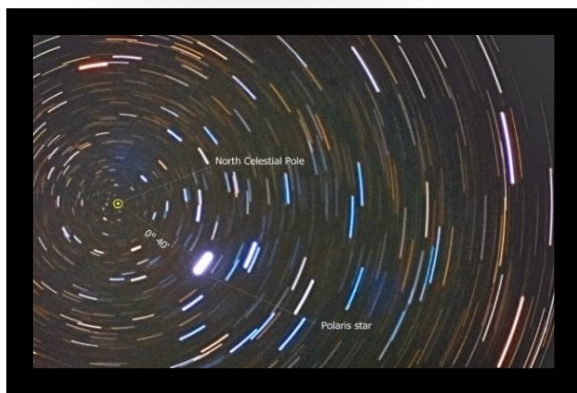

I also believe our planet Earth is a spherical shape. Here is how and why I believe that. The first reason is several scientists throughout history already scientifically measured the planet Earth. NASA also agrees that Earth isn't flat but a global planet. While NASA believes Earth cycles around the sun and rotates itself and I disagree about that. Their conspiracy theory Earth cycles around the sun and rotates itself is a lie. The same NASA lie about the 1969 moon landing. Here is what I've discovered: our moon does orbit around the Earth, but most people probably don't realize that the moon does not rotate. Would it kind of be strange that the moon doesn't rotate while the earth does because scientist's theory says so?

Now, here is the second reason why Earth is a spherical planet. If I am looking at the moon from the North Pole and take a picture of it. Then went to the south pole and took a picture of the moon from there as well, both pictures of the moon will visual the opposite. It appears upside down or up. (See the demonstrated example on the left) We cannot deny the fact that Earth is not flat, but a global planet earth.

The third reason why Earth is a spherical planet is that by using the best quality telescopes, we might be able to caper the planet Mars in a good clear visual night sky. Seeing Mar at the closest visual from Earth, to get a good clear image of the planet. Knowing that this Mar is not a flat planet. We can capture Mars and be able to see the polar cap on the top and bottom of the planet. Our planet Earth also has a polar cap, on the top and bottom (north pole & south pole) as well. This is another reason why we cannot dent that.

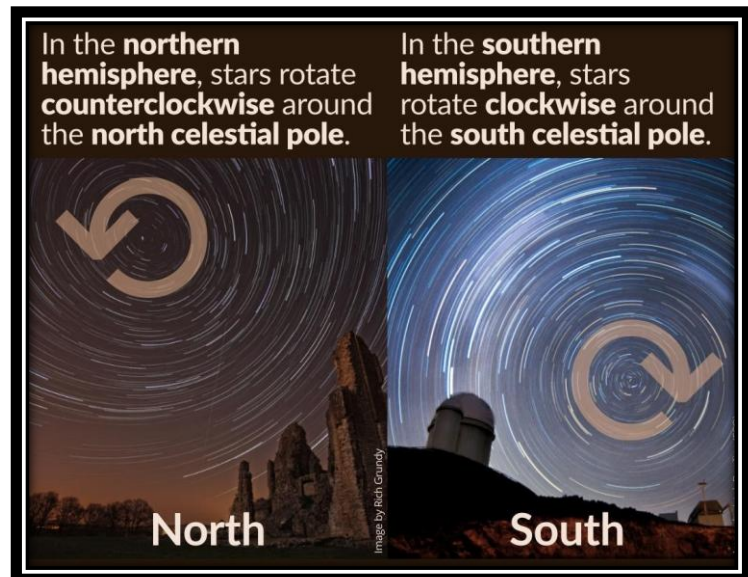

The fourth reason is how I've watched the fast-forward video of all the stars that rotate around the center of the North Star (Polaris). Same thing for the south celestial pole endpoint as well. While watching it spinning, we will notice the north and south celestial pole endpoint does not spin around as the other stars do. This helps me understand why Earth does not rotate or move around the sun at all. Because our planet Earth sits in the same position where the north and south celestial pole endpoints appear to sit in the same place too. Yet, this North Star - Polaris from our naked eye once again does not seem to be moving as every other star does, however, this particular North Star does move a little if we use a super telescope to notice it. Yet, this North Star that is slowing cycle around something next to which we cannot see still appears like not moving position. Here is one scripture passage that might fit into this whole wonder.

“He stretcheth out the North over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.” - Job 26:7

Notice in this photo of two different areas, the northern and southern hemispheres showing how the stars rotate. This is why we cannot deny why the South rotates the opposite way compared to the North. Proof why Earth isn't flat at all. Along with the passage verse we just read is evidence of what and how everything in the universe holds, because this had to fit with the north and south celestial pole along with the stars that rotate around the earth.

School teachers and scientists have claimed every planet in the universe rotates around itself. Maybe most of the planet appears but not all of them. That is another thing I have learned about. If our moon does not rotate itself and is the other planets, this explains another reason why our earth does not rotate as well.

While I had a lot of thoughts about the celestial pole from the north and south, thinking about the Earth's magnetic field. This magnetic field which scientists have discovered was coming from both celestial poles, the north top and south bottom of the earth. Thinking about how the Earth is hanging from these celestial pole positions, yet, at the same time, the magnetic field which comes from both the celestial of the north and south poles area explains this whole reason why the Earth is holding at the center of the universe. Just like how the book of Job 26:7 describes all this alike.

I also believe the gravitational force comes from this magnetic force as well. This also explains why and how everything is being held in its position from the planet Earth. I know most scientists do not agree with these facts. I hope someone does. Here is an interesting fact I have learned about the gravitational force, which comes from this magnetic force. Not many people know about this if the weight of a person standing anywhere on the earth's equator area will weigh less than those who standing on the North or South Pole area. Yes, indeed that is a very interesting fact. Yet, we must better understand why is that. A person's body itself does not change, rather it is just the force of gravity that changes when a person approaches the north or south poles area as opposed to anywhere at the equator area. The further away we stand from the North Pole, the more weight changes. That is how and why I believe everything; all trees, plants, creatures, and mankind are holding to the ground of Earth instead of how other scientists claimed that the Earth cycling around the sun and Earth rotation itself is pulling us to stand on Earth. There are more reasons explaining why this is an impossible pull of gravity by the cycle of the sun and its earth's rotation.

I believe Earth is somehow the center controls in balance of the universe. This invisible hanging celestial pole from north and south helps us explain the reason why all the stars, moon, and sun are the ones that rotate/cycle around us (earth). All planets or stars in the universe are different sizes and shapes. All planets come in various shapes and sizes, from spherical to more oblate forms. Astronomers have meticulously studied these celestial bodies, and our understanding continues to evolve as we explore both our solar system and exoplanets beyond it. Some of those planets appear like a rugby ball, an egg, or even a potato. One example recalled was discovered in 2004, this minor planet (now known as the dwarf planet Haumea) is as wide as Pluto but shaped like a big squashed cigar. It's about one-third the mass of Pluto and has a highly elongated form. Its nickname, "Santa," reflects its unusual appearance.

Haumea orbits the Sun in the Kuiper Belt and was named to honor its Hawaiian discovery.

So, why is our planet Earth so different from every other planet in the universe? And why our planet Earth is more spherical? According to the mathematical measures of the earth, the equatorial circumference of the earth is about 24,900 miles (40,070 km). The difference from the meridional circumference from the pole to pole is only 24,812 miles (39,931 km) around the earth. Now that we know why Earth is not round like a blue marble. The photo that NASA claimed has photographed the Earth from the Moon is a hoax.

This is another reason against the flat doom earth conspiracy theory. After we already know the Earth's mathematical size planet from north, south, east, and west we have sailed on a ship and flew on a plane around the world. From going through all of those directions we have the measurement and design to see how our planet Earth might look alike. It turns out to be a spherical planet.

And what's more, flying a plane is another thing to look at. Many scientists teach that the Earth spins around its axis at approximately 1,000 miles per hour (1,600 kilometers per hour). The concept of the Earth spinning at high speeds was first proposed by ancient Greek astronomer Aristarchus of Samos around 270 BCE. He suggested that Earth rotates on its axis and orbits the Sun, which was a revolutionary idea at the time. Later, in the 16th century, Nicolaus Copernicus further developed the heliocentric model, which included the idea of Earth's rotation. This model eventually gained acceptance and fundamentally changed our understanding of the cosmos.

When we take off from one location to another location to land, flying off the ground, far up in the sky while the earth spins. Commercial planes typically cruise at speeds ranging from 550 to 600 miles per hour (mph), which is approximately 478 to 521 knots. When we leave NYC and arrive in LA, it only takes about 6 hours. The problem with these 1,000 miles per hour speeds of spinning earth just doesn't add up. It doesn't fit the math.

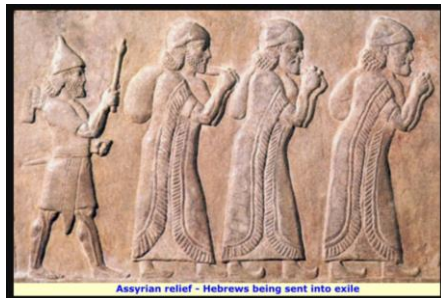

Yet, scientists will say something like this "Imagine you're on a moving walkway at an airport. If you walk forward on the walkway, your speed relative to the ground is the sum of your walking speed and the walkway's speed. Similarly, planes are moving within the Earth's rotating atmosphere, so their speed relative to the ground is what matters for travel time". The truth is the planes are just moving through the Earth's atmosphere, while the sun (or moon) rotates around the Earth. The hour is still ticking every second of the hour. The same as how we drive on the road.

The book of Psalm 103:12 says:

“As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.”

This scripture passage helps us to see why going west from the east will always stay west or going east from the west will always stay east. The result of this is that it continues where there is no end. Which different from how going north or south, because when we go north does not continue to stay north, it will become south. Just as going south will become north. This is why Earth cannot be a flat planet. Some supporting scriptures testify against the flat earth conspiracy theory, like Genesis 28:14, Isaiah 11:12, Job 37:3, and Ecclesiastes 1:6.

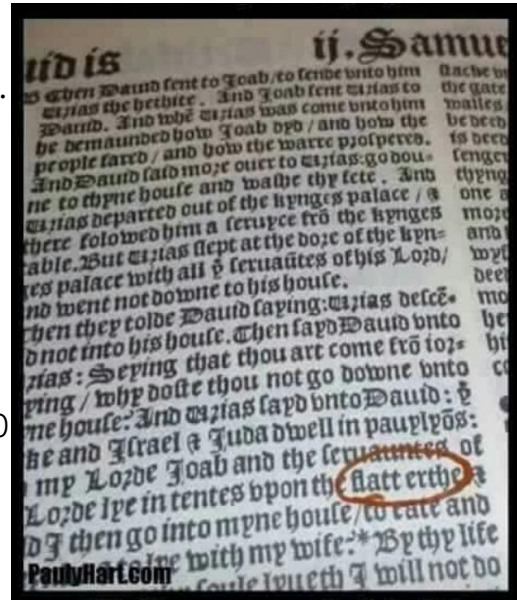

While there are still people who believe in the flat earth theory that had a dome over it. Because they would point out evidence that Earth isn't global. Stating that Isaiah 11:12 describes the Earth with four corners. Picture that our world is as flat as a four-corner land. This is one of their biggest mistakes of how and why they don't understand what the passage was describing. For example, would we be able to understand the TASSELS that are created on the four corners of the garments described in Deuteronomy 22:12 (or Numbers 15:38)?

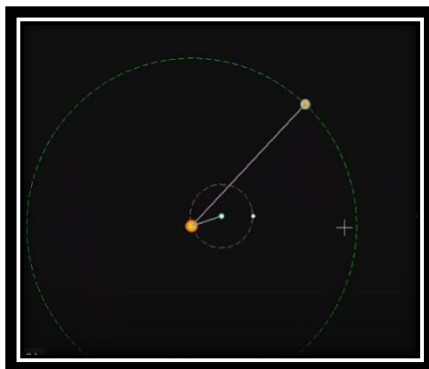

“You are to make for yourself twisted threads (tzitzit) on the four corners of your garment in which you cover yourself.”

An example like the left photo of three exiled men who were all wearing these garments with “TASSELS” (Tzitzit) on its four corners. An outfit of this garment with four corners around the body does not mean a man is flat. Just as why earth's do have four corners. It's speaking of the north side, south side, west side, and east side, that is the four corners of the Earth. Get it now?

If we come across someone who also would point out to us about the old 1537 Matthew Bible that says "FLATT ERTHE" in 2nd Samuel 11:11. He or she will still be mistaken about that. Because people often misread non-modern English terminology in an older version. This manuscript has long been an obscure old Bible that was superseded first by the Geneva Bible in 1560, which was the version of choice for most of the English-speaking Reformers, and then the King James Bible in 1611. Both the 1560 Geneva Bible and the 1611 KJV translate the Hebrew פְּנֵי הַשָּׂדֶה (pənei hassādeh) as "open fields," and many modern versions have the singular "open field," with few exceptions that are listed at the end of this chapter.

The context of the passage is everything. This passage (2nd Samuel 11) is where King David was orchestrating the predetermined ruin of Uriah. David had taken Uriah's wife in physical intimacy, resulting in impregnating her. David sought to cover up his sin from being revealed by bringing Uriah in from battle to have him relax, drink, and be physically intimate with his wife, Bathsheba. If David's plan worked, then Uriah would assume he is the father and David would be off the hook. Uriah was telling David that all his soldiers are camping out rather than being at home with their wives, so he will not lay with his wife either. Nothing in that dialogue has anything to do with the whole planet, let alone its shape. To make sense for Uriah to say they were camping on a vertical incline? An army will naturally set up camp on a horizontal plane, or open field. The rest of the other translated Bible all says "open field". So, be careful and do the homework before addressing what we think we have the truth ends up being a lie.

Here is another reason why Earth is in the center of the universe. Sitting at the center of the universe as it does not rotate itself or circle the sun. Instead, this sun rotates around the Earth. I've wrote more about this on another document, it explain more about the Geocentric model. Here is the PDF link below to read about this part of evidence why Earth is the center of the universe:

False History of NASA

The school education system has been lying to us the whole time about Earth's cycle around the Sun, etc... The same lying about why NASA had never taken a picture behind the dark side of the Moon. Whether NASA had the opportunity to have the satellite or astronaut to capture it. Instead, they make an excuse to lie about why they haven't. Just as NASA had also lied about the 1969 moon landing history. All of this reason is because no human has ever gone out of the earth's atmosphere to the far space of the universe. They fake it for money and power. After their Space Race to the Moon beat the Soviet Union space program plan.

The new generation of NASA people continues to lie about the history. After many people are starting to see the truth behind the lies. More people have doubts about NASA's history as fraud. They start asking questions like "What is wrong with the filming of Neil Armstrong, the first man who set his foot on the moon?" Why this video camera was filming the first man and then Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin, the other Astronaut who also came out of the spacecraft. "Who was filming behind the camera uh?" By now, you probably get the whole picture.

Or, "What is wrong with this photograph capture (photo on the right) that seems off?" Notice the astronaut's suit appears to be brighter by the light, while the dark shadow below the astronaut's position is as dark as black. This photo looks like a fake capture of the moon. Even the famous MythBusters in episode 2 of season 6 (August 26, 2008) also point out about this as well. More people are seeing the truth behind the lies that NASA has been lying about.

Once again, we can see why the earth is the center of the universe because of how Genesis in chapter one explains to us and also because of how the north and south celestial poles show us. What is more interesting is, that people once knew more about the north celestial pole, before the North Pole was named after it. People back in the old days knew the term "navel" was anciently used in many languages for "center," and that the Pole, or central point of the revolving constellations, was the "Navel of Heaven." But as to the celestial Pole, there corresponds to a terrestrial one, so it is only natural that to the term the "Navel of Heaven," there should be the corresponding expression the "Navel of the Earth."

There is one more piece of history that supports the TANAKH. Even so, people need proof that the scripture books aren't a scam or false doctrine. There is an ancient object that measures just over a centimeter in diameter. It is a Seal of Hezekiah, and it is also known as a bulla of King Hezekiah. A seal impression of a two-winged sun disk flanked by ankh symbols and containing a Hebrew inscription that reads "Belonging to Hezekiah, (son of) Ahaz, king of Judah." The bulla was discovered along with 33 other stamped bullae during the wet-sifting of dirt from a refuse dump located next to a 10th-century BCE royal building in the Jerusalem Ophel. It was discovered by excavations led by Dr. Eilat Mazar. The reason why this is evidence, a proof of evidence of what King Hezekiah witnessed what שד did to the sun, was a miracle event.

According to Isaiah 38:8, Hebrews 11:34, and 2 Kings 20:1-11, Isaiah came back to visit King Hezekiah again (Yes, this is the same king's name which the two-winged sun disk was made during his time), because Hezekiah prayed שד. The first prayer he spoke was to be glorified in the defeat of Sennacherib's army and the second prayer was about his welfare illness health to death. שד send Isaiah back to visit Hezekiah again, with the good news. The good news is that he would not die. שד also gave Isaiah the answer he knew Hezekiah would ask for proof. When King Hezekiah asked Isaiah for proof, Isaiah replied by asking Hezekiah "Do you want the shadow of the sun to go forward ten steps or back ten steps?" King Hezekiah replied to the prophet Isaiah for the shadow to go backward ten steps. שד did move the sun backward. Hezekiah was amazed to see how the sundial shadow went backward 10 steps. These symbols royal seal of the sun and the two-winged disk are proof of evidence that Hezekiah is the real person. A real historical ancient king who saw what happened to the sun. He is one of the famous royal kings written in many historical books other than scripture books. We cannot deny all this, especially the miracle event King Hezekiah saw and how he ended up living another 15 years after he was ill to death.

Isn't all of this provided resource enough to prove to you that the Earth does NOT move? We cannot ignore this and it needs to be told against the lies. Whether the scripture books said the sun in the past did move backward or just stop, it does not matter whether you do not believe it, because it did happen. While Earth is the center of the universe, Ψ 's throne someday will be placed on this world we live in. Because HE is the center of all HE worthies to have because HE is the ONE who created everything. He is the sovereign of everything. While everything in the universe moves around the celestial pole where the Earth all begins Ψ .

Final Reason

Here is the final and key point of why our planet Earth is a spherical shape instead of the hemisphere planet (flat dome) shape Earth. Let's start learning some interesting facts, starting with the rainbows. If we were to view a rainbow from above, such as from an airplane, we would see that it forms a complete circle. However, from the ground, the horizon cuts off the bottom part of the circle, so we see it as an arch rainbow shape. The reason to point out the rainbow is to notice the raindrops. Maybe we have thought about this: why do the raindrops not appear in shapes like stars, cubes, triangles, or the letter "L"? This question will bring us to the physics question. Let us understand the physics of water and surface tension.

- Surface Tension: Water molecules attract each other, creating a force called surface tension. This force pulls the molecules into the smallest possible surface area, which is a sphere. This is why small raindrops are nearly spherical.
- Air Resistance: As raindrops fall, air resistance flattens them slightly, making them more like a hamburger bun shape rather than a perfect sphere. However, they still maintain a rounded shape because of surface tension.

- Uniform Distribution: For a raindrop to take on a shape like a star or a cube, the forces acting on the water molecules would need to be very different. In nature, the forces (gravity, air resistance, and surface tension) work together to keep the raindrop's shape uniform and rounded.
- Instability of Non-Spherical Shapes: Non-spherical shapes like stars or cubes would be unstable in the atmosphere. They would quickly break apart or reshape into a more stable form due to the forces acting on them. So, the combination of surface tension, air resistance, and the need for stability results in raindrops being rounded rather than taking on more complex shapes.

Since we just learned about the physics of water from the raindrops and surface tension facts, it points to the sphere shape. In the absence of gravity (no gravity), a drop of water in the air flowing would naturally still form into a perfect sphere. This is due to surface tension, which pulls the water molecules together into the smallest possible surface area—a sphere. This is why it's the key point evidence of why Earth is a spherical-shaped planet. This also leads us to the end of the argument against the flat earth theory.
